@jimmiebjr What sitting VP did not get the Pres nom that sought and ran for it since the 1950s?

@jimmiebjr I don't see how a Rubio or Ryan hurts themselves or the party by running for VP even if they lose.

RocksEm @RocksEm · 21 Jun 2012
@jimmiebjr If you're elected VP it's virtually certain you will get the pres nom if you want it. If you lose you gain a national following.

RocksEm @RocksEm · 21 Jun 2012

@mcsystemsgb You are supposing Zimmerman shot him for that reason and not because he felt his life threatened.

@mcsystemsgb If I grab you by the throat and begin to strangle you, you are more than justified in shooting me.

@mcsystemsgb Self defense relates to the degree to which you feel, justifiably, threatened. Not what you are threatened with.

@mcsystemsgb the mere fact someone is unarmed does not mean they are

@mcsystemsgb If it turns out that he confronted Zimmerman, hit him & had him on the ground that goes a long way towards justification.

@mcsystemsgb There is no law that says if you shoot someone who is attacking you then you go to jail just cause they are 17.

@mcsystemsgb Your side of the argument consists almost entirely on supposition. You need evidence to arrest people.

@mcsystemsgb Martin hwas on his way home. There's nothing to indicate he did not stop and confront Zimmerman instead.

RocksEm @RocksEm · 30 Mar 2012
Yes? Who did what? RT @mcsystemsgb: @RocksEm yes he did, he was on his way home when this happened.

@mcsystemsgb It's doesn't matter what the police ordered. Zimmerman lost Martin & so was no longer following him.

RocksEm @RocksEm · 30 Mar 2012
Does that mean "To dance like Al Gore"? RT @AiPolitics: "Algorithm" is one of my favorite words.

Replying to @BratFrye

@mcsystemsgb There is zero evidence Zimmerman asked Martin anything. Evidence is he had lost him.

RocksEm @RocksEm · 30 Mar 2012

Replying to @BratFrye

@mcsystemsgb It's not against the law to follow someone. If Martin felt harassed he had a remedy. The police.
